TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St.
Louis, "the future great City of the world."
This line, the
ST. LOUIS & SOUTHEASTERN RAIL-WAY,

has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air-brake.

It is positively the only line running
Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that the "St. Louis & Southeastern" is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourself and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to C. S. BAR-RETT, Southern Passenger Agent, Postoffice Box 242, Chattanooga, Tenn., or to the undersigned.

THIS weather reminds the public that Wood and Coal are necessities. Apply at the new Coal Yard of J. A. SPRINGER, corner Front and Mulberry sts.

A YOUNG MAN was robbed twice yesterday, losing in all $38.

THE storm signal is flying from the office of the Weather Observer.

THERE were more drunken persons on the streets yesterday than we have ever seen.

THE cell doors and locks of the county jail were thoroughly overhauled on Christmas Eve.

SERVICES were held in the various churches yesterday, but owing to the inclement weather the attendance was small.

HAVE your pianos tuned for the holidays, by J. F. RUECKERT. 2t

THERE were 42,805 bales of Cotton exported from New York from Dec. 1st to 23d, against 49,522 bales for the corresponding period of last year.

EFFECTS of panic tremendous: Tumblers in prices at

S. HANSTEIN & Co's New York House, 15 Market st.

WRECK.—Some phellow who was taking "Christmas on wheels," and while turning at the corner of McRae and Mulberry streets, ran into a lamp post last evening about six o'clock, and completely demolished his buggy. The remains of what was once a buggy is piled up against the fence.

CLOTHING is down, money being scarce, we are offering our entire stock of clothing, boots and shoes at suspension prices.

S. HANSTEIN & Co's New York House, 15 Market st.

CAN'T have a merry party during the holidays until your pianos are tuned by J. F. RUECKERT. 2t

THERE will be a meeting of the Produce Exchange to-morrow at eleven o'clock, to consider the proposed change in regard to selling Spirits Turpentine by weight. It is the general belief that there will be no change made from the present mode of weighing and selling by measurement.

AN ELEGANT CHRISTMAS GIFT.—One of those elegant Chickering Pianos now at Prof. Rueckert's Piano Rooms corner 4th and Market sts. 3t

INFORMATION concerning George Smith, colored, a discharged soldier, is wanted. Any one knowing his whereabouts will please inform Geo. L. Mahan. George Smith will hear something to his advantage by making himself known. 2t

OWING to the late panic we will sell until January 1st, our entire stock at 25 per cent. less than New York cost.

THE TOWN ORIER.

—Cold.
—Gold is 109½.
—Rainy yesterday.
—Still very muddy.
—Court next Monday.
—Awful wind last night.
—The "Kooner" business is about played out.

—Trees and fences were blown down last night in every part of the city.

—Flannagan and Heinsberger made the Senior's boys happy this morning.

—The ordinance against firing in the streets was very generally observed.

—Business good this week. We never saw the streets so full, or the stores so crowded.

—We don't want to be a Raleigh newspaper, and jaw over the printing business.

—Now prepare for New Year's calls. There will be considerable of it done this season.

—If you didn't get everything you expected in your stocking, just blame Santa Claus.

—The children have been very happy, but didn't they have to stay in the house though?

—A terrible day for Christmas was yesterday. Raw, wet, cold and generally disagreeable.

—The practice of tooting tin horns all night before Christmas is a nuisance that should be abated.

—Raleigh being a small town, its daily News paper takes a holiday from Christmas to the end of the week.

THE Sunday School scholars of St. James' Church serenaded, after midnight services, on Christmas morning, Bishop Atkinson and Dr. Watson with Christmas carols.

STRANGE.—From captains of vessels we learn that during the prevalence of the northeast gale, last night about 2 o'clock, the stars were shining beautifully overhead and to the southward, while there were heavy clouds in the north, with terrific rain falling in torrents, and continued so for over an hour.

ON Wednesday night, between 10 and 11 o'clock, the store of John C. Koch, corner of Orange and Front, was fired into from the street. The first shot struck the show-case, and about two minutes after another shot was fired, striking Mr. Koch in the calf of the right leg, inflicting a painful wound. No clue has been obtained to the perpetrators of the outrage.

AT RALEIGH.—The recherche entertainment of the Peace Institute at Raleigh, which took place Monday night, is highly spoken of by the News, and must have been one of unusual brilliancy and pleasure. Among those young ladies whose performances were specially mentioned we are pleased to notice the names of two of Wilmington's fair daughters. The representation of Grandmother B., in the colloquy, "The Greatest Plague of Life," by Miss Fillyaw, was well acted and received with universal applause. The vocal solo, "Waiting," by Miss Cassidy, was listened to with great pleasure by the audience, and received their hearty encore, as also did her representation of the French Governess in the colloquy "Modern Benevolence."

CHRISTMAS has come and gone. The day was gloomy, and the whole city seemed to be wrapped in a state of ennui. Santa Claus had been busy for more than a week past in preparations, selecting toys and presents for the little ones, but the rain prevented their enjoying themselves as they would wish to, and as a general thing they pronounced it the dullest Christmas they had ever seen. The Don Quixottes were out in spite of the rain, and occasionally one would see a wet and disgusted Kooner walking around, followed by a dozen small urchins. Everybody, but reporters were, at home, spending a quiet day with their families, and the streets were almost deserted.

The city ordinance preventing the firing of guns and pistols did much to lessen the list of casualties incident to Christmas days of former years. There were very few fire-works displayed last evening, and they were only by a few who had purchased before night. The night was as black as Erebus, stores were closed by half past eight, and none but policemen and a few benighted pedestrians were to be seen at nine o'clock.

Jacob Baker, who was convicted and sentenced at the last term of the Mecklenburg Court, of the murder of Newton Wilfong, and who escaped from the jail, has been recaptured, and will undergo the sentence of the law the 2nd of January.

The small pox has appeared in Burke county.

THE following communication will explain itself:

Handsome Gifts.
WILMINGTON, N. C.,
24th December, 1873.

To Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Robinson, Miss Julia Stevenson, Miss Lizzie Russell, Mr. Fred G. Robinson, Mr. Harris Northrop and Mr. William E. Worth, composing the Choir of the First Presbyterian Church—
DEAR FRIENDS:—

The undersigned members of the church and congregation, being desirous of manifesting in some manner their high appreciation of your faithful and self-sacrificing services in the Church Choir, as well as your extraordinary talent in the cultivation of Sacred Music in its highest order, ask your acceptance of the accompanying souvenirs in testimony of our regard for your generous exertions, which have been so abundantly successful in contributing to the welfare of our church, and the edification of its members.

May you live to see many happy returns of this joyous season, and at the last unite in swelling the song of glory to Him whose natal day we celebrate.
Yours Faithfully,

Geo. W. Williams, E. Murray, Geo. Chadbourne, E. E. Burruss, Preston Cumming, E. Kidder, C. P. Mcbane, B. G. Worth, B. F. Hall, J. H. Chadbourne, Jr., W. R. Kenan, R. W. Hicks, James Boney, Williams Murchison, R. M. McIntire, W. A. Patterson, Samuel Northrop, W. A. Cumming, H. Tallchett, John D. Sprunt, P. Heinsberger, A. A. Willard, E. T. Hancock, C. A. Hamner, James Sprunt, L. A. Hart, J. Francis King.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Robinson received a silver tea service. Miss Julia Stevenson, a silver card receiver and a pair of bronze statuettes. Miss Lizzie Russell, organist, gold watch and chain. Mr. F. G. Robinson, French clock. Mr. W. Harris Northrop, "Grace Darling." Mr. W. E. Worth, a marble bust of Shakespeare.

SEVERE STORM—HOUSE BLOWN DOWN.—Our city was visited last night by one of the most violent storms ever known in this section of the Cape Fear district. A new house just completed on the corner of Sixth and Harnett streets, the property of Bill Holmes, was blown over. The house of Mrs. Keenan, on Bladen and Eighth, also new, met with the same fate.

An unfinished house on Camp Lamb was lifted up and carried for some distance. Fences and huge trees succumbed to the power of rude Boreas, and it is feared that damages of a very serious nature have been sustained by towns to the north of us.

Since writing the above we learn that seven houses in all were blown over, but we could not learn who they belonged to and think it highly probable that this is an exaggeration.

A horse ran away with Mrs. T. Pullen, of Rocky Mount, last Wednesday. Mrs. Pullen's arm was broken, and her little son, who was in the buggy with her, was severely bruised.

A boy in Charlotte exploded a fire cracker in a bottle which he held in his hand. The bottle had a quantity of powder in it. The boy's eyes are sound, but his face is somewhat scratched.

The torpedo boat Pinta left Key West last night for Havana, on a trip of observation.

The Kansas, commander Reed, has arrived, four days from Santiago de Cuba. The Canandaigua arrived at Santiago on Friday, Dec. 19th, two days before the Kansas left. All is well on the Kansas and Canandaigua.

The steamer Sanatic, from Galveston for New York, reports remarkably rough weather in the Gulf.

Lieut. Winn, commanding steamer Pawnee, denies that there is any dangerous fever on that ship. The mortality is small, considering the large number of recruits on board from New Orleans. There is no yellow fever in this vicinity.

A gale from the Northward has prevailed at Key West. The Dispatch and Mayflower dragged their anchors, but after drifting around the harbor were finally secured.

It is reported by both the Kansas and Pinta that Ralph Keeler, special correspondent of the New York Tribune, left Santiago de Cuba on the steamer for Batasanco about ten days ago. At Manzanillo he was missing, though his baggage was still on board. Not having been heard from on the 21st, it is feared that some serious accident has befallen him.

All was quiet at Santiago de Cuba when the Kansas left.

LANCASTER, December 26.

A bloody fracas took place at Groveton, last evening, growing out of an attempt by Michael O'Leary and a Frenchman named Blackwell, both intoxicated to enter a house of questionable repute owned by a Frenchman named Gonege. The result of the fight was the death of Gonege and his son, a young man who was killed by O'Leary with a club, the mortal wounding of Blackwell with an axe by the elder Gonege and a bad wound on O'Leary's head from a club used by a female inmate of the house.

OHIO.

DAYTON, December 26.

At a shooting match, yesterday, at Riga, a village near here, two brothers, John and Henry Stowe, quarreled about loading a rifle and John called Henry a liar, when Henry drew a revolver and shot John, killing him instantly. The spectators being excited, caught and hung Henry to the limb of a tree, and when taken down life was extinct. Too much whiskey caused the mischief.

PROSPECTUS.
THE EVENING POST.

J. C. MANN.

EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

Published every evening, except Sunday, at

Five Dollars per Annum.

The Post is designed to reach all classes of citizens, and its subscription price is therefore placed so low as to be within the reach of all. It contains the

LATEST NEWS,

up to the time of going to press.

TELEGRAPHIC,

BY MAIL,
COMMERCIAL AND LOCAL.

It should be in the hands of every man who desires to know what has transpired during the day, and, as it aims to give

RELIABLE INTELLIGENCE,

its publisher hopes it will prove a welcome guest in many families.

THE POST

is sprightly without being sensational, and it carefully excludes all objectionable incidents and reports calculated to offend the sensibilities of the most fastidious. As an

Advertising Medium

it claims to be first class. It has a good and constantly increasing circulation, and is read by almost every business man in the city.

Politically the Post is

UNSWERVINGLY REPUBLICAN.

Its editor having been a consistent member of that party since 1855, through its vicissitudes and triumphs, he claims to speak advisedly when advocating its principles. He is not, however, an "extremist," and accords to others what he claims for himself, the right of free thought and of free speech.

THE ADVERTISING RATES OF

the Post, like its subscription price, are at liberal and at living prices, as an examination of them will show, and it bespeaks a share of public patronage.

THE EVENING POST

is closely identified with the local welfare of the Cape Fear region, and the believers in progress, whether

EDUCATIONAL,

AGRICULTURAL,
MECHANICAL, or COMMERCIAL,

will find an enthusiastic ally in THE Post.

THE POST

is opposed to monopolies, but in favor of internal improvements, and a firm believer in the patronage and support of home enterprises and institutions.
